

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

IN THE DARK OF THE SUN has been dawning for quite a few years, and there are more than a few people who played a role in helping it see the light.

The authors would like to thank Phillip Gonzales, who provided the first push and much of the grist that launched the story—also an amazing Amazonian adventure.

Paul Jimenez and Jack Ewing for their generosity in sharing not only their indigenous knowledge of Colombia and Costa Rica, but also themselves; reading, offering invaluable suggestions, and so much more. Special thanks to Hacienda Barú.

Cesar Franco and his colleagues at the Franco Consulting Group for their technical expertise and other insights.

For helping to guide us in the skies: H. Jay Brown, US Army MW4 (retired), President and Executive Director, Combat Helicopter Pilots Association; Rhea Rippey, US Army Captain (retired) and founding board member of the Combat Helicopter Pilots Association; John Fore, US Army CW3 (retired).

In Costa Rica: Bruce Blevins for lending himself and Banana Bay Marina. Many thanks to the people and places of Costa Rica: William Cook and the Pacuare Lodge; Marco Montoya and the Hotel Grano de Oro; Victor Esquivel Chaverri and the Tabacón Resort; Orlando Albisetti of Lynch Travel in Quepos; the Hemingway Inn; Joel Burgess and Anywhere Costa Rica; Sean Flynn; Glen Love for the generous use of Villa Mango and Casa Amigo. The ever-enchanting Dominical.

In Colombia: Jorge Sanjines, Peruvian Air Force Major (retired); Fernando Cadena Duque for his oversight of diving and Cartagena; John Fox of the Red Lion; Tim and Becky McKeown for their gracious and memorable hospitality; Jim Carrender for an unforgettable evening in Bogotá.

In the Bahamas: Bill and Susan Little for the Caribbean, sailing, and Hawk's Nest. Also for being enthusiastic first readers. Additional help from Anton, JR, and Randy of Hawk's Nest, Nathaniel "Top Cat" Gilbert and family, and Susan Murphy of Tango Beach Cottages. Special thanks to the Bahamas' Ministry of Tourism and Film Commission, particularly Craig

Woods and Angela Archer.

Trevor Perfect for flying, Zak Matten and Bob Anslow for Millennium and high-octane sailing, Helena Wescombe-Down and Rosalind Koepke for Shark Shield.

There are quite a few others whose help, information, and knowledge was key but who, for security reasons, asked to remain anonymous—they know who they are and for their contributions, we are extremely grateful.

Adrienne Dennis for not only reading, but cheerleading, motivating, and believing.

A band of brothers who, in one way or another, lent their spirit.

Finally, we thank our friends and families for their love and support.
